“ My sincerest condolences to the family of Eloise Knight.

Mamaw, you had an infectious smile that lit up every room you entered. You were all about “family”, and creating “crazy fun”. I have so many funny memories, but mostly memories of your genuine heart. Saying “THANK YOU” is not enough for all you’ve done for others.

“Well done, my good and faithful servant. Matthew 25:21”

When you entered Heaven, what a glorious day that must have been! The streets paved with gold, no more pain or illness.

Rest in peace – in the arms of Jesus.

“ Auntie Eloise, I have so many great memories of you and I. Cooking dinner together. Going yard saleing , good will stores. I remember you doing a happy dance when we all finished the upstairs apartment in Streator . The love you have for your family was so unconditional. Auntie I love you so much. “ My Mamaw was the most amazing, loving and caring lady around. She truly was the back bone of our family. I have to many memories to share but I will share the greatest life lesson she taught me...and that has to do with your family. She always said that we need to stand by your family..good or bad it's all you will have at the end of the day. Her greatest joy was having all her family together. They all have always said I'm just like you Mamaw and I couldn't be more proud to be just like you. I love you Mamaw. Hug all our family up there and I hope you enjoy the view. You will always live on in me
