“ My dad was a mighty warrior for his family by the end of his life. Not only was he an army veteran, he was also an active duty soldier of the lord. He woke up every morning to praise God and do his devotions. In all my years I had never seen this side of him, but over the past couple years he changed for the better and became someone I could not only love, but respect and admire. We had some rough patches with medical issues in the past, but over the past couple years he fought through it all, and became someone I am going to miss with all of my heart. I just wish I knew how to say goodbye.

I love my mom, dad, and couldn't be happier that they adopted me and my little sister. Thank you dad, I'll never forget you. Its going to be a long life without you.

I hope I can make you proud. Its all I ever wanted.

“ Dave was a wonderful man! He always had a smile and a kind word. He loved God and his family. He would help anyone he could- he was just pleasant to be around. He loved my cousin and their family like no other. He will be greatly missed, but we'll see him again one day in heaven.
