

Deborah Ann Williams

April 14, 1956 - April 2, 2024

Deborah Ann Williams, age 67, of DeMotte, Indiana went to be with Jesus Tuesday, April 2, 2024 at home. She was born on April 14, 1956 in Cook County, Illinois the daughter of Dwight and Evangeline (Heron) Williams. Her father preceded her in death.

Deborah pursued her education at Dallas Bible College, where she delved into the realms of music and child development. Seeking further enrichment, she continued her studies at Fort Wayne Bible College, nurturing her intellectual curiosity and expanding her knowledge.

A devoted member of Brushwood United Methodist Church in Rensselaer, Deborah found solace and strength in her faith community, forming deep and lasting friendships along the way. She poured her heart into teaching Sunday school, instilling the values of love and compassion in the young minds she touched.

Beyond her devotion to her faith, Deborah found joy in simple pleasures—spending cherished moments with her family and friends, immersing herself in the wisdom of her Bible, and indulging in the occasional shopping excursion.

Deborah is survived by her beloved mother, Evangeline Williams of DeMotte, IN; her caring brother, Steven (Julie) Williams of Lowell, IN; and her loving sisters, Nannette (Bruce) Sparenberg of Remington, IN, and Charlotte (Scott)

Seidleman of Dyer, IN. Their lives were enriched by her presence, and her memory will forever be cherished in their hearts.

A Celebration of Life will be held at Risen Community Church, 5780 IN-10 DeMotte, on April 6, 2024 from 2:00 until 5:00 pm.

“ This news brings me much sadness... I just found out yesterday of her passing or I would have been there to say my goodbyes. I took care of Debbie for a few years when I worked for Help at Home. We developed a bond and friendship and that love we shared will stay with me always. She was a beautiful soul with a big heart. I love you Debbie and you will be deeply missed! You touched my life in so many ways that I won't ever forget you! May God hold you in his loving embrace now!

“ Debbie had a big heart. When my husband was very ill Debbie came to visit him in our home with 2 other ladies from brushwood. I remember the joy she brought him with her laughter. He always used to say I hope my ladies come to visit. I love the joy she brought to all her brushwood family. May God give u comfort in the days ahead. Shawn and Morey Johnson
