“ I grew up with Holly, just a few houses down on Lakepointe. I remember so well the jump roping and playing catch and baseball in the street or in the back yards. Standing at the back door and calling, "Holly, Can you come out and play?" (We were not allowed into the neighbors" houses!)

Holly and Valerie taught me how to play "Chicken" with a jack knife.... And Russian Handball... And the St John Birchman's cheer leaders' cheer. (El vival, El vival El vival Vival Voom!) There are so many good memories of her and Janice Francis and Gracie Mazolla.

I am so sorry that Holly died so young. I hope to meet her again in Heaven some day!
