I'm so crushed for your family, JT. You were such a goofy kid and I will always have our fond childhood memories together. You will be severely missed by those you loved and those who loved you.

“ I was only with JT a few times in person (on painting projects), but those times left me wanting more. I always hoped he would be on the crew at our home. JT was fun to be with -- was a kind and caring spirit.

“ Jerry is the one who introduced me to the ukulele, taught me how to play, and inspired me to get my own and always urged me to keep practicing. That's one of many things I'll always carry with me that Jerry brought into my life. He understood how important music is and always wanted to share it with everyone he could. <3 He was a true artist and very talented with any instrument he picked up.
