“ Kelly was a sweet person, loved life always made me feel like family. She loves her family and friends did anything for them. I hope we would have her many years to come. Not a doubt in my mind she will be a great guardian angel to all she loved. She was a strong woman and fought for the life she had. I will love and miss you Kelly.

“ Kelly really was one of the sweetest people I've had the privilege of knowing. She was a sensitive soul and I saw her cry over the plight of people she didn't even know. She wanted everyone to be happy and to have enough and she hated seeing someone get hurt. I was around when she and her beloved first husband had baby Kreigh. They both adored that boy. I was delighted when she found love a second time and married a man who loved her and Kreigh the way they deserved to be loved. She led a blessed life because she was loved by so many people. And more than that, she blessed so many lives because she had such a big and caring heart. RIP, Kelly.
