

Kyle Christopher Wilson

June 2, 1994 - May 29, 2024

Kyle Christopher Wilson, 29, of Wheatfield, passed away on May 29, 2024 after a courageous battle.

Born on June 2, 1994, in St. Louis, MO, Kyle was the beloved son of the late Kenneth Wilson Jr. and Corrina Rex (née Maksimovich).

Kyle was known for his friendly and genuine nature. He had a unique ability to ask insightful, open-ended questions that allowed him to truly understand people. With the kindest heart, Kyle's personable demeanor endeared him to many. He enjoyed spending time with friends and was always eager to explore new hobbies, often diving into the latest gadgets with enthusiasm, regardless of initial success. Kyle's willingness to try anything once exemplified his adventurous spirit.

He worked as a dealer at the casino, reflecting his love for games of all kinds—be it gambling games, video games, or sports games. Kyle was truly an all-around gamer.

Kyle is survived by his loving mother and best friend, Corrina Rex, his dad James Rex, his brother Nicholas Wilson, and his sister Olivia, who affectionately called him Carl. He also leaves behind his cherished 'besties' Xanthus and Lydia, several nieces and nephews, and his second mother, Sheri Ploof. Kyle's close friend, Mike Roman, and many others will deeply miss him.

Kyle's warmth, curiosity, and adventurous spirit will be fondly remembered by all who knew him.
