“ We are so very sorry to read of Matt's passing. The notice was in the Post-News of the 24th, and it was too late to go to the service for him. We saw Matt at the vet's, and he would always visit with us for a few minutes - he was so proud of Mia, and showed us pictures of her. Charlene and Rob, you have our condolences, as well as his wife and the rest of the family. He was such a friendly guy, never too busy to talk for a while when he could. Gone way too soon! “ Words cannot express how much I will miss you. You made Tae Kwon Do classes so much better. One of my favorite memories is one day in sparring class I kicked you into the wall and broke Mr. Walkers phone hanging on the wall. My heart goes out to your family, wife and daughter.

“ It saddens me to here if Matt's passing. He was one of the best students an Instructor could have asked for. He reminded me, through his actions, how the instructor must remain a student and how the student can become the instructor. My heart goes out to his wife Madelyn, his daughter Mia and his family. A good man has been reborn

Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted - Matthew 5: 4
