“ So very sorry to hear about the loss of this great man. Id only known him for 7 years, which isn't much compared to his family and friends that he loved so much, but in those 7 years he did so much for us. Hope he knows how much of a positive impact he had on my children, our pets (baby boy, and Jewelz) and myself. Our paths may have gone different directions but the fact he was a great person remains the same. I pray everyone that knew this man can find peace because the loss of someone like him will be hard to forget.
