She lived her values and prioritized her family & her faith in God above all else, never hesitating to lend a hand where it was needed. She will be remembered most by family and friends for her keen sense of humor, her laugh, her kind heart and her immeasurable love for her family especially her beloved grandbabies.

“ Sally's sense of humor made you smile and feel joy, even if you was having a rotten day. I could just look at her and smile because I knew something was going to come out of her mouth funny. Your going to be missed my friend, not only by me but every one that knew you. Love you Sally.

“ I remember the tuna casserole with potato chips crushed on top she would make. I tried a few times to make this but never tasted like Sally's. Rest in heaven now Sally

“ *There are so many childhood stories to choose from. My greatest memory is the love she had for us. I remember when I was young. I always wanted to stay with Aunt Sally and Uncle John. Even though she never put up with our crap. I always felt safe when I was with her. I loved to sit around and listen to her sing lullabies. You will truly be missed. Love always.
